REQUIREMENTS: CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR

1. Criminal Justice majors must complete the general requirements for Columbian School of Arts and Sciences majors (see the GWU Bulletin for Undergraduate Programs).

2. Required Core Courses: (27 credits)
   Prerequisites for upper-division Sociology courses:
   Sociology 1001 Introduction to Sociology
   or Sociology 1002 The Sociological Imagination (GPAC)
   AND Sociology 1003 Introduction to Criminal Justice
   Sociology 2101 Social Research Methods
   Sociology 2102 Techniques of Data Analysis
   Sociology 2135 Youth & Delinquency
   Sociology 2136 Criminology
   Sociology 2145 Criminal Law
   Sociology 4192 + SOC 4193: Advanced Seminar in Criminal Justice (must be taken at the same time)*
   * Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the restrictions on internship options associated with the pandemic, in 2020-21, seniors may enroll in 4192 and take an additional upper-division CJ elective to substitute for 4193 if they wish to do so. Please confirm this choice with your academic advisor in the department.

3. Electives: Any FIVE of the following (15 credits)
   Sociology 2137 Transnational Crime
   Sociology 2139 Alternatives to Imprisonment
   Sociology 2143 Criminal Justice System Arrest through Appeal
   Sociology 2146 Bill of Rights & Criminal Justice
   Sociology 2164 Sociology of the Holocaust and Genocide
   Sociology 2167 Sociology of Law
   Sociology 2178 Deviance & Control
   Sociology 2184 Violence & the Family
   Sociology 2185 Victims, Victimization and the System
   Sociology 2189 Special Topics in Criminal Justice, including Victimology, Alternatives to Imprisonment, and CJ System Arrest through Appeal
   Anthropology 3513 Anthropology of Human Rights
   Economics 2167 Economics of Crime
   Forensic Sciences 2104 Introduction to Forensic Science (Spring only. Note: this course requires two lab sciences as prerequisites)
   Forensic Sciences 2151 Crime Scene Investigation
   History 2341 History of F.B.I. Counterintelligence
   History 3370 U.S. Constitutional History
   Political Science 2213 Judicial Politics
   Political Science 2215 U.S. Constitutional Law & Politics II
   Psychology 2011 Abnormal Psychology
   Psychology 2554 Psychology of Crime and Violence
   * Other relevant courses (e.g., new courses or special topics) will be considered subject to the program director’s approval.

NOTE: Students should check prerequisites for non-Sociology electives.
NOTE: Students must take a minimum of one of the Sociology courses listed and a minimum of one of the non-Sociology courses listed.
A Note on Grades

Students seeking degrees granted by the Department of Sociology (Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Human Services & Social Justice) are required to earn a grade of C- or better in any course for the major or minor. If a student receives a grade of D+, D, or D-, the student may either option (1) repeat the course, in which case the grade in the repeated course must be no lower than a C- and grades for both the original and repeated courses would appear on the student’s transcript; or option (2) take a 2100-level course in the same department, in addition to the minimum number of courses, and earn a grade no lower than C-. Option 1 must be approved by the department chair in writing before the student may register for a course a second time. Option 2 must be approved by Prof. Eglitis, Director of the Undergraduate Program for Sociology (dainas@gwu.edu).
REQUIREMENTS: CRIMINAL JUSTICE MINOR

Criminal Justice minors must complete the general requirements for Columbian School of Arts and Sciences minors (see the GWU Bulletin for Undergraduate Programs). For the minor, a total of 18 hours of coursework must be completed, as follows:

1. Required Courses: (12 credits)
   Prerequisite Courses:
   Sociology 1001 Introduction to Sociology
   or Sociology 1002 The Sociological Imagination (GPAC)
   AND Sociology 1003 Introduction to Criminal Justice (GPAC)
   Sociology 2136 Criminology
   Sociology 2145 Criminal Law

2. Electives: Any TWO of the following, with at least ONE Sociology course (6 credits)
   Sociology 2137 Transnational Crime
   Sociology 2139 Alternatives to Imprisonment
   Sociology 2143 Criminal Justice System Arrest through Appeal
   Sociology 2146 Bill of Rights & Criminal Justice
   Sociology 2164 Sociology of the Holocaust and Genocide
   Sociology 2167 Sociology of Law
   Sociology 2178 Deviance & Control
   Sociology 2184 Violence & the Family
   Sociology 2185 Victims, Victimization and the System
   Sociology 2189 Special Topics in Criminal Justice, including Victimology, Alternatives to Imprisonment, and CJ System Arrest through Appeal
   Anthropology 3513 Anthropology of Human Rights
   Economics 2167 Economics of Crime
   Forensic Sciences 2104 Introduction to Forensic Science (Spring only. Note: this course requires two lab sciences as prerequisites)
   Forensic Sciences 2151 Crime Scene Investigation
   History 2341 History of F.B.I. Counterintelligence
   History 3370 U.S. Constitutional History
   Political Science 2213 Judicial Politics
   Political Science 2215 U.S. Constitutional Law & Politics II
   Psychology 2011 Abnormal Psychology
   Psychology 2554 Psychology of Crime and Violence

NOTE: Students should check prerequisites for non-Sociology electives.

A Note on Grades

Students seeking degrees granted by the Department of Sociology (Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Human Services & Social Justice) are required to earn a grade of C- or better in any course for the major or minor. If a student receives a grade of D+, D, or D-, the student may either option (1) repeat the course, in which case the grade in the repeated course must be no lower than a C- and grades for both the original and repeated courses would appear on the student’s transcript; or option (2) take a 2100-level course in the same department, in addition to the minimum number of courses, and earn a grade no lower than C-. Option 1 must be approved by the department chair in writing before the student may register for a course a second time. Option 2 must be approved by Prof. Eglitis, Director of the Undergraduate Program for Sociology (dainas@gwu.edu).
LAW & SOCIETY MINOR

The interdisciplinary Law & Society minor is housed in the Department of Sociology and is open to all qualifying GWU undergraduates. The application form can be downloaded from the Law & Society minor webpage. To declare the LSoc minor, bring this application form to a meeting with Fran Buntman (fbuntman@gwu.edu), Director of the Law & Society minor. Admission to the minor requires a 3.3 min GPA, based on at least 30 credit hours at GW. (Exceptions can be made to these requirements on reasonable bases, e.g. transfer credits.)

The Law and Society minor requires 18 credit hours (excluding prerequisites) in total, structured as follows:

- Two (2) required foundation courses (6 credits):
  - SOC 2167 Sociology of Law
  - UW 2031W Equality and the Law: Introduction to Legal Research and Writing OR
  - UW 2031 Equality and the Law

One (1) secondary foundation course selected from the following (3 credits):
- PHIL 3142 Philosophy of Law
- PSC 2214 U.S. Constitutional Law and Politics I
- PSC 2215 U.S. Constitutional Law and Politics II

Three (3) additional classes from the following list:
  - Any of the secondary foundation courses listed above; i.e. students must take one secondary foundation course, but students may take more than one of these courses.
  - ACCY 3601 Business Law: Contracts, Torts, and Property
  - ACCY 4601 Business Law: Enterprise Organization
  - BADM 4101 Business Ethics and the Legal Environment
  - ECON 3190 Law and Economics
  - IAFF 3183 Human Trafficking
  - IAFF 3190 Humanitarian and International Development Law
  - IAFF 3513 Human Rights and Ethics
  - MAE 3171 Patent Law for Engineers
  - PHIL 3100 Global Justice
  - PSC 2213 Judicial Politics
  - PSC 2367 or PSC 2367W Human Rights
  - PSC 2444 Public International Law (or IAFF 2444 International Law)
  - PUBH 3136 Health Law
  - SMPA 2173 Media Law
  - SOC 2143 Criminal Justice System Arrest through Appeal
  - SOC 2145 Criminal Law
  - SOC 2146 Bill of Rights and Criminal Justice
  - WGSS 3470 Sexuality and Law
  - SOC 2988 (previously PSC 2988) Internship in Law and Society
  - Other relevant courses (e.g., new or special topics) are subject to the Director’s approval

Note that:
  - With the exception of SOC 2988 (previously PSC 2988), no more than two courses from a single department may count for the minor.
• No more than two courses may be counted for both the Law & Society minor and any other major or minor.
• We recommend that the two required foundation courses are taken before the other required and elective classes in the minor.

For further information on the minor, contact Fran Buntman (fbuntman@gwu.edu).
ADVANCED SEMINAR IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE (SOC 4192 and 4193)

The Advanced Seminar in Criminal Justice course is restricted to senior Criminal Justice majors. Students taking the seminar must register in the same semester for SOC 4192 (a graded seminar) and SOC 4193 (a P/NP internship credit). These may not be taken separately. Students registering for SOC 4192 and 4193 should have completed most of their Criminal Justice coursework, but must have completed Criminology (SOC 2136) and Criminal Law (SOC 2145).

The senior seminar consists of advanced coursework in a seminar and an internship of 16-20 hours per week. Students should be prepared to commit a substantial amount of time to both the internship and the course work. Course work includes class presentations, papers, readings, and other assignments. The senior seminar meets the CCAS GPAC oral communication requirement.

Students must secure an acceptable internship before the courses begin. Students who do not secure an internship will not be permitted to take the senior seminar. Once you have secured an internship, email the professor teaching the class for the semester you plan to take it and identify (1) the agency and (2) the kind of work you will be doing. The instructor will inform you if the internship is acceptable for the seminar.

Internships:

- Must be in an off-campus agency or organization that deals with criminal justice issues, not just any type of agency. If the agency works on non-criminal justice issues, don’t even consider working there. (Note: while there is no prohibition on working for law firms, if you are considering working for a law firm, you will be asked to confirm that the work concerns criminal justice issues, not civil or other forms or law, AND is substantive, not merely clerical. Most law firm internships that involve substantive criminal justice issues go to law students, not undergraduates, hence this note.)
- Internships may be remote.
- Must involve work that enables the intern to learn a substantial amount about criminal justice. The work should not include filing, copying, or other clerical work. The work should deal with offenders, victims, the criminal justice system, or an organization that works on criminal justice issues, including policy issues.
- May be paid or unpaid.

A list of many websites, organizations, and agencies working on and in Criminal Justice is listed towards the end of this packet. Students taking 4193 do not need to select an internship from this list, but most do.)
SPECIAL HONORS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

In addition to meeting the general requirements stated under University Regulations, a candidate for graduation with Special Honors in Criminal Justice with a major GPA of at least 3.5 and a thesis. Please note the following additional conditions and information:

- A final overall GPA of 3.0 or higher (pending confirmation by the department).
- A final GPA in the major of 3.5 or higher (pending confirmation by the department).
- Register for three (3) credits of SOC 3195: Independent Study for the semester in which a thesis will be completed.
- Prior to the SOC 3195 semester, ask a Criminal Justice faculty member to serve as Research Director (this is typically someone with whom you have already taken courses).
- Receive a grade of “A” on the SOC 3195 thesis.
- Complete a Special Honors Application, which must be signed by the Research Director. The application form can be found on our website at http://sociology.columbian.gwu.edu/undergraduate-programs-declarations
- During your final semester, submit the signed application form to the Sociology Department office assistant in Phillips Hall 409. Questions should be directed to soc@gwu.edu.
- Once the semester is completed, the department will complete the GPA information and submit it to the Registrar’s Office. It will take a few weeks for your Special Honors designation to appear on your University transcript.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA:
CRIMINAL JUSTICE HONOR SOCIETY

Alpha Phi Sigma: The National Criminal Justice Honor Society
http://www.alphaphisigma.org/

Membership requirements:
- 3.0 GPA overall
- 3.2 GPA within the major
- At least four classes within the major completed

Application materials:
- Completed Alpha Phi Sigma Application Form – contact soc@gwu.edu for the form
- $50.00 cashier’s check or money order payable to Alpha Phi Sigma Headquarters
- Unofficial copy of your transcript

Submit the above application materials to:

The Criminal Justice Student Association (CJSA) is a new organization on campus that allows students to come together who are seeking a better understanding of the criminal justice issues that our country is currently struggling with. CJSA strives to provide a platform to those who want to do more, but are not informed on how to do so, and will foster a community for students with similar interests.

CJSA welcomes anyone to join the club! This includes criminal justice and sociology, majors, minors, and concentrations, as well as people who are simply interested in criminal justice-related issues!

If you are interested in joining CJSA follow them on GW Engage, Instagram (@gw_cjsa), or fill out this form!
INDEPENDENT STUDY IN SOCIOLOGY or CRIMINAL JUSTICE
(SOC 3195)
Information and Guidelines

General Information about the Independent Study

The Independent Study in Sociology (SOC 3195) provides Sociology or Criminal Justice majors with an opportunity to (a) explore in fuller depth or detail an area that a student has encountered in a previous Sociology or Criminal Justice course or (b) explore an area which is not part of the department’s major curricula. The first step in doing an independent study is to identify a faculty member or faculty members who may be a good fit with the student’s area of interest. The student should plan to meet with the faculty member to discuss the possibility of conducting an independent study under his or her direction. Faculty members are not obligated to supervise independent studies, though many are willing to do so in areas where they have a special interest or expertise. The second step is to prepare an independent study proposal and to submit that to the faculty member with whom the student would like to work. Guidelines for the required proposal may be found at the bottom of this sheet.

Students may take the independent study course for between 1 and 3 credits. All students doing the independent study must prepare a final research paper. Although individual faculty members may have their own requirements, as a general rule,

- a one-credit paper must be between 2500-3000 words, which is about 10 to 12 pages (not including charts, tables, pictures, appendices, the bibliography, or any other back matter).
- a two-credit paper must be between 3800-5000 words, which is about 15 to 20 pages (not including the items noted above).
- a three-credit paper must be between 6000-7500 words, which is about 25 to 30 finished pages (not including the items noted above).

Eligibility for SOC 3195: Independent Study in Sociology

The Independent Study in Sociology or Criminal Justice is available to junior and senior level Sociology and Criminal Justice students. It is strongly advised that students seeking to do the independent study have completed at least one semester of research methods (SOC 2101 or SOC 2102).

INDEPENDENT STUDY IN SOCIOLOGY (SOC 3195)
Information and Guidelines
(cont’d)

Proposal Guidelines

In order to register for SOC 3195, students must prepare an independent study proposal in consultation with the prospective faculty member. Students are advised to submit both a hard copy and an electronic copy of the proposed independent study to the prospective project advisor at least 2 weeks before the student intends to register for SOC 3195. The independent study advisor’s approval of the project proposal must be obtained before registration.

The independent study proposal should include the following:

1. A proposal cover sheet indicating your name, major, and year of graduation

2. Proposed title of thesis paper

3. Introduction
   ▪ What is the key topic(s) of your thesis?
   ▪ What brings you to this topic?
   ▪ What are your research questions?

4. Preliminary literature review and theoretical underpinnings of your project
   ▪ What sociological literature and/or other existing research is relevant to your project? What have other researchers written about this area of inquiry before you?

5. Proposal Conclusion
   ▪ What do you hope to achieve in this independent research project?
   ▪ What is the proposed timeline for the preparation and completion of your thesis? How often will you meet with your faculty advisor? What do you see as his/her role in your project?

6. Initial bibliography of literature and/or other works to be used in the project
   ▪ This should include 5 to 8 scholarly publications, including books and articles from academic journals. Please avoid overreliance on internet source materials. Your bibliography should be composed primarily of appropriate academic publications.
   ▪ The bibliography should be prepared using the American Sociological Association (ASA) style.

Please begin your proposal well in advance of the time you plan to submit it for consideration to the faculty member with whom you would like to work. Badly organized, poorly written, unclear or incomplete proposals are unlikely to be accepted.
COMBINED DEGREE PROGRAM: BA/MA CRIMINAL JUSTICE/CRIMINOLOGY

The Department of Sociology offers a Combined Degree Program for undergraduate majors who would like to continue their education in the field. The program enables students to earn both a Bachelor’s degree in Criminal Justice and Master’s degree in Criminology within five to five and a half years by counting some coursework toward both degrees.

Students who are admitted to the program are able to take three relevant graduate courses (or nine credits) during their senior year; those nine credits will count toward both the BA and MA degrees. This allows for a considerable cost and time savings, and also helps our department retain and further our engagement with our best students.

Students interested in matriculating into the Combined Degree Program:
- must have an overall GPA of 3.40 or better at the time of application;
- must have a GPA of 3.50 or better in the major at the time of application;
- must apply to the graduate portion of the program no later than the spring term of the junior year and after completing 75 undergraduate credits;
- must complete both an application form for the Combined Degree Program and the formal application for graduate admission;
  - The application includes the applicant’s statement-of-interest in the program, a writing sample, three letters of recommendation,* and transcripts of all undergraduate coursework. (Unofficial transcripts are acceptable.)
    - *Three letters of recommendation from faculty members are required. At least two of these letters must come from faculty in the Sociology Department at GW. Letters from Teaching Assistants are not acceptable.
  - Applicants are not required to submit GRE scores.
  - Students need not pay the application fee for the MA.
  - Students should submit all application materials to the Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of Sociology, not to CCAS.
- will be informed of acceptance into the program in late spring of their junior year.
- must earn a “B” or better in all graduate courses;
- must complete a thesis or write a comprehensive exam, as per the requirements of the MA in Criminology;

Students interested in applying for the Combined Degree Program in Criminal Justice/ Criminology should contact Professor Fran Buntman, Director of the Graduate Program in Sociology, for more details (gradsoc@gwu.edu).
REQUIREMENTS OF COMBINED BA/MA in CJ/CRIM

In addition to the general curriculum requirements of the Columbian College of Arts and Sciences, Criminal Justice majors must satisfy the following requirements (39 credits total):

- Prerequisite Courses: SOC 1003 and either SOC 1001 or SOC 1002
- Required Courses in Criminal Justice:
  - Sociology 2101—Social Research Methods
  - Sociology 2102—Techniques of Data Analysis
  - Sociology 2135—Youth and Delinquency
  - Sociology 2136—Criminology
  - Sociology 2145—Criminal Law
  - Sociology 4192 and Sociology 4193—Advanced Seminar in Criminal Justice and associated internship (6 credits)
- Five Electives out of the following classes:
  - Sociology 2137 - Transnational Crime
  - Sociology 2143 - Criminal Justice System Arrest through Appeal
  - Sociology 2146 - The Bill of Rights and Criminal Justice
  - Sociology 2167 - Sociology of Law
  - Sociology 2177 - Sociology of the Sex Industry
  - Sociology 2178 - Deviance and Control
  - Sociology 2184 - Violence and the Family
  - Sociology 2185 - Victims, Victimization and the System
  - Sociology 2189 - Special Topics in Criminal Justice: varies
  - Psychology 2011 - Abnormal Psychology
  - Psychology 2254 - Psychology of Crime and Violence
  - Forensic Sciences 2104 - Introduction to Forensic Science (Requires two lab sciences)
  - Anthropology 3513 - Human Rights and Ethics
  - History 2175 - U.S. Constitutional History
  - Political Science 2213 - Judicial Politics
  - Political Science 2215 - U.S. Constitutional Law and Politics II
  - Economics 2167 -Economics of Crime

The MA in Criminology degree requirements include:

- Three Methods courses: SOC 6230, SOC 6231, and SOC 6232.
- Two Criminology courses: SOC 6258 and SOC 6259.
- One Theory course: SOC 6238 or SOC 6239.
- One Criminal Law course: SOC 6257 or FORS 6224. BA-CJ/MA-Crim students who have taken SOC 2145 are usually eligible to substitute another graduate class instead of SOC 6257 or FORS 6224. This option should be discussed with the DGS or a Criminology MA advisor.
- Three or five additional electives, with relevant options from Forensic Sciences, Criminology, and, with permission, from other GW departments or the Consortium. Five electives are taken by students taking the comprehensive exam and three electives, plus SOC 6998 and SOC 6999, are taken by students taking the thesis.
- A Comprehensive Examination or a Thesis is required:
  - Comprehensive Examination: Written examination covering required coursework.
  - Master’s Thesis: Substitute SOC 6998 & 6999 (Thesis Research) for two elective cances. At least two Forensics and one Criminology elective must still be taken.

COMBINED DEGREE PROGRAM: BA in CJ/MPA

Bachelor of Arts (BA) with Criminal Justice (CJ) major combined with a Master of Public Administration (MPA)

The Criminal Justice major in the Sociology Department and the Trachtenberg School of Public Policy and Public Administration (TSPPPA) currently allows qualified students the option of combining their BA in Criminal Justice (CJ) degree with the TSPPPA’s Master of Public Administration to get both degrees within five and a half years. Twelve appropriate TSPPPA credits received while completing the BA may be counted both toward the BA and MPA. Advantages of the combined degree include completing two degrees, including a graduate degree, in a lesser time with fewer credits, and benefiting from a challenging opportunity available to top GW students.

Columbian College of Arts and Sciences requires students to complete their BA requirements before their MPA. In other words, for planning purposes, students intending to pursue the MPA must select courses for their BA so as to complete their BA and begin earning credit for the MPA. They need to graduate with their BA before completing the MPA. (CCAS refers to this consecutive degree acquisition as a combined degree program rather than a joint degree program.) In order to retain undergraduate financial aid, students must maintain a minimum of 51% undergraduate classes.

Admission Timing and Requirements:

1. CJ bachelor’s students should apply for the MPA during their junior year (i.e., once 75 hours of credit hours are completed, at least 45 of which must have been completed at GW). Students should apply by February of their junior year and will know if they are admitted to the MPA program by April of their junior year.

2. The GRE is not required. Students should have a good GPA and will be assessed and accepted on the basis of their overall background and potential. Supporting documents include resumes, advisor assessments, letters of recommendation, etc.

3. Students do not apply online. All application materials should be turned in, in person, to the Sociology Department. If approved, all materials should then be turned into TSPPPA by February 1.

1. The application deadline is February 1.

Combined Degree Program Requirements (continued on next page)

(cont’d)

Combined Degree Program Requirements:

1. CJ major requirements listed above.

2. During the fourth year of the BA, it is highly recommended that the following PPPA classes be taken: PPPA 6001, 6002, 6003, and either 6005 or 6006. BA students taking PPPA graduate courses MUST work with a TSPPPA advisor in addition to their CJ advisor.

3. After completing the BA, combined degree students become MPA students and must finish their remaining requirements to obtain the MPA. These include: PPPA 6000, 6004, either 6005 or 6006 (whichever was not taken previously), 6016, 6009 (or 6008 if taken in the fall), three or four courses in one of the public administration fields, and two or three electives.

4. Criminal Justice BA students may count the following classes toward their BA: PPPA 6002 may count for SOC 2102, and FORS 6211 and 6212 count for FORS 2103 and 2104. (Note, however, that if one takes PPPA 6001, 6002, 6003 and either 6005 or 6006 as part of the BA, then FORS 6211 and 6212 are unlikely to be allowed to double count, because of the 12-credit double counting rule.) Please note further that CJ advisors will still need to put this permission in individual student’s files.

5. The Sociology department strongly recommends that BA-CJ/MPA students take at least one graduate-level Criminology course in the Sociology department as one of their MPA electives.

Equal Justice USA
http://ejusa.org/about/jobs
A nonprofit agency that works on reforming the penal system, including a moratorium on the death penalty, Books for Prisoners, and analysis and research on innocence, racism, and violations of due process in specific individual cases. Applicants should submit a current resume, a brief (no more than 2 pgs.) writing sample (an academic, journalistic, or creative writing piece; can be an excerpt) along with a short email stating specific interest and qualifications to Emma Weisfeld-Adams, Organizing and Communications Coordinator, at emmawa@ejusa.org.

Families Against Mandatory Minimums
FAMM is a national nonpartisan, nonprofit organization founded in 1991 in response to inflexible and excessive penalties required by mandatory sentencing laws. FAMM promotes sentencing polices that give judges the discretion to distinguish between defendants and sentence them according to their role in the offense, seriousness of the offense, and potential for rehabilitation. FAMM’s 38,000 members include prisoners and their families, attorneys, judges, criminal justice experts and concerned citizens.
